READING, Pa., March 24, 2009 – EnerSys® recently announced the availability of its ODYSSEY® battery hold down kits, customized exclusively for ODYSSEY® batteries. ODYSSEY® battery hold down kits are custom fit for a range of ODYSSEY® battery configurations specific to the automotive/LTV, classic car, custom/tuner cars, motorcycle, marine, motor boats, and racing markets.

In addition, ODYSSEY® battery hold down kits feature a polished aluminum finish, giving it a sleek look that is especially appealing for custom and tuner cars. Currently, ODYSSEY® battery hold down kits are available for ODYSSEY® battery models PC680, PC925, PC1200, 34-PC1500, 34R-PC1500, 34M-PC1500, PC1700, 31-PC2150, and 31M-PC2150.

“Made from polished aluminum, ODYSSEY® battery hold down kits offer an aesthetically pleasing solution for those looking to relocate a battery or add additional batteries in their vehicle,” said Dave McMullen, Director of Marketing for EnerSys®, Specialty Markets. “We will continue to expand our product offering to include products with the latest technology in the industry.”
